Retail assortment

Today, Ledo is the largest Croatian producer of industrial ice cream and the largest distributor of frozen foods, and therefore it is no surprise that Ledo products are present in virtually every household.

The wide assortment of Ledo products - ice cream, frozen fruits and vegetables, frozen fish, dough, ready-made meals and meats, is continually being supplemented with new innovative products that meet the high standards of Ledo consumers. Recognisable, always loved and very popular, Ledo wins customers over with its excellent supply of diverse products, premium quality and modern appearance.

A combination of tradition and cutting edge technology

Ledo is constantly working to introduce new technology and to perfect the production process, and is constantly maintaining the highest possible standards in the area of distribution and quality. More than 500 refrigerators equipped with cutting edge technology ensure that products reach sales locations in the shortest possible time. Moreover, more than 100,000 cooling devices at the most attractive locations throughout the region ensure that customers can obtain their favourite frozen products at any time.

Social responsibility as a priority

In addition to constantly maintaining a premium product quality level, Ledo is also concerned about socially responsible operations, and continued care about nature and the environment. Environmental protection is one of the Ledo's strategic goals in operations, as care for our surroundings is important for the coming generations and future fans of Ledo products. By ensuring tasty and healthy frozen products, Ledo also advocates a healthy life and healthy diet.

Since the very start, Ledo has worked towards achieving the satisfaction of its customers, consumers and other interested parties, and this is a goal that it has successfully achieving for more than half a century. Its vast experience, readiness to react to any market challenge and continued INVESTMENTS in production, distribution and personnel guarantee its market leader position in the future.

VEGETABLES

Fresh frozen keeps the best!

BASIC VEGETABLES

Fruits and vegetables ripen in the sunny gardens, fields and orchards, filling up on vitamins, minerals and other nutritious elements right until the moment of harvest. It is at that moment that fruits and vegetables are at their best. In order to remain perfect until they become your rich and delicious meal, Ledo freezes them to keep them at their peak for you.
